Part 4: Application Affidavit

I declare that the information is true and correct. I also acknowledge that failure to properly display these permits may result in the issuance of a valid citation and that it is my responsibility to inform all members of my household and visitors on the correct use of my permits. Holders of parking permits are subject to all restrictions regarding parking in municipal parking lots other than limits on parking in excess of twenty-four hours. Parking Permit does not exempt holder from snow emergency parking regulations. Parking permits shall not be transferable and shall be specific to a particular vehicle. Once issued, the parking permit shall be subject to revocation for violation of parking permit rules, including the failure to keep contact information current and/or the transfer of said permit to an unauthorized vehicle. In addition, the permit shall be subject to revocation for a violation of parking lot rules set forth in the City Code, including, but not limited to, snow emergency regulations. All applicants for parking permits must not be in arrears on parking tickets issued by the City of Kingston. Revocation of a parking permit shall not entitle the holder of said permit to any refund for fees paid. Holders of parking permits are not guaranteed available parking spaces.

Parking permits are non-refundable.
